

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The High School enters upon its second month of the second term and hopes to demonstrate to the public the good work it is doing.

There are two Literary societies this term, instead of one, and a program will be given each Friday night. Division B. gave the following program last Friday night:

Song, "America."
Aim of Society, Prof. March.
Inaugural Address, Herman Hendley.
Song, "Solomon Levi," Boys' Glee Club.
Reading, "The Farmer and the Wheel," Elizabeth March.
Book Review, "Treasure Island," Casteau Burnett.
Importance of Agriculture in the Rural Schools, Virgil Fiscus.
Song, "The Thrush," Girls' Glee Club.
Current Events on War in Europe, Wesley Stover.
Current Events on the Late Earthquake, Johanna Selby.
Local Current Events, Claudia Hyder.
Song, "Don't Cry, Little Girl," Glee Clubs.
Division A. will give the following program, Friday night, Feb. 5:

Song.
Inaugural address, Edgar Snodgrass.
Recitation, Alice Jernigan.
Original Reading, Estelle Hyder.
Duet, Mary Loshbaugh and Mary Bishop.
Recitation, Gertrude March.
Debate: Resolved, That Women Should Be Allowed to Vote. Affirmative: Halie Dunbar and George Brookhart; Negative: Lenora Lingo and Willie Elmore.
Current Events, Local, John Dunbar.
Song, "Tennessee," Society.
Division A. has elected the following officers:
Edgar Snodgrass, President; Monroe Tabor, Vice President; Mildred Burnett, Secretary; Pearson Hayes, Sergeant at Arms; Emma Pollutz, Gladys Davenport, George Brookhart, Program Committee.
The officers of Division B. are:
Herman Hendley, President; Casteau Burnett, Vice President; Ruth Davenport, Secretary; Wesley Stover, Sergeant at Arms; Grace Hyder, Vivian Dunbar, Willie Dunn, Program Committee.

The Glee Clubs, assisted by their able teacher, Miss Ethel Keyes, and her instrumental music pupils will give a recital in the court house Thursday night, Feb. 4.
The Domestic Science classes, under Mrs. Olive K. Barnes, are enjoying their work immensely and feel that a better teacher could not be found.
Quite a number of the out of town pupils spent the week end at their respective homes.

NOTICE BEFORE MAKING DEED.

To Samuel Scott:
As the owner of 80 acres of land located in the First Civil District of Cumberland county, Tennessee, bounded on the north by Schmidt, on the south by Tanner, east by Pugh, and west by Schmidt, you are hereby notified that unless you appear at my office, in the court house, in the town of Crossville, Tennessee, on or before Friday, the 30th day of April, 1915, and pay state, county and all other taxes assessed against said land, together with all interest and costs incurred, including this notice of publication, as now provided by law, your right to redeem same shall be forever barred, and deed to the same will be at once executed by me to T. A. Tanner, the purchaser of said land.
Witness my hand at office this February 2, 1915.
T. F. Brown,
2-3-4t. Circuit Court Clerk.

Can that grouch and wear a smile.

Mrs. Mary Linder was in from Creston Saturday shopping.

The editor was in Nashville the greater part of last week, which caused numerous matters incident to the paper to get behind, but by next week everything will be moving along in the usual channels.

Mrs. S. C. Brown, of Athens, stopped for two days on her return from attending the annual meeting of O. E. S. Grand Chapter, Nashville, for a brief visit with her father, Samuel Cline, and her sister, Mrs. S. C. Bishop.

Wanted—Live foxes; not caught in a trap or hurt in any way. Will pay $2.00 each and express charges. John B. Vaughn, Pikeville. 1-13-4t.

Judge S. C. Brown, of Athens, was elected Grand Junior Warden, F. and A. M. at Nashville last week. That means he will go to the chair of Grand Master in three more years.

In noticing the selection of Hill Lowrey for marshal of Crossville, the White County Favorite has the following to say: "Mr. Lowrey is a faithful, fearless and impartial officer, and has no favorites when it comes to enforcing the law. He will arrest the Mayor or member of the Board if they get crooked as quick as he will the humblest offender. He is just the kind of officer that every town needs but some towns don't want his kind."

If you need a typewriter ribbon of any make or color or two-color, send 75 cents to the Chronicle office and it will be sent you by mail. Be sure to tell the kind of machine and number and the color of ribbon wanted.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Norrod and little son, of Danville, Ky., were here last week as the guests of Dr. V. L. Lewis and family. Mr. Norrod was formerly store manager for the Clear Creek Coal and Lumber Company, Iolaine, and has numerous friends in this county.

Thursday a dinner was given at the home of Cashier J. S. Reed in honor of the 73rd birthday of his father, J. S. Reed. Dr. W. A. Reed and wife and M. F. Reed and wife were also present. This made a happy gathering of all the children of Mr. Reed. A beautifully decorated cake was prepared on the top of which appeared "73" tastefully arranged. The old gentleman has been suffering for some days with an affliction of his back, which has kept him confined to the house, but the occasion was such a tempting one that he could not forego the promised pleasure and he ventured out. The occasion was a most happy incident and one that will long be remembered by both father and children.

G. W. Henry was up from Burke Saturday paying his taxes and went on to Cookeville to look after business.

Tomorrow morning at 9:30, State Agent H. D. Tate and D. T. Hardin, from the state university at Knoxville, will make talks on agriculture along the lines of demonstration work. At the close of their talks there will be a demonstration of fruit tree pruning in some near by orchard. - Owing to the brief time allowed to get the information to the farmers of the county, the crowd cannot be nearly so large as it would otherwise be, but every person who can be present should be sure to attend as they will be sure to learn much of interest.

Two cars of cattle shipped a few weeks ago by Trustee Jas. Smith and E. L. Lemert did not prove a rousing success for several very good reasons. The foot and mouth disease had forced many cattle on the market and prevented those same men from buying more cattle for feeding purposes, which tended to depress the market. A few days previous to their arrival in Cincinnati three ship loads of dressed beef had reached the Atlantic sea board cities and several thousand quarters had been shipped to Cincinnati, which overstocked the market. When we come to consider that a ship load is over 150 car loads, it will readily be seen that three ship loads means a large amount of meat to force on the markets at one time. Mr. Smith stated that the best cattle sold slowly and the price was low, while rough cattle found a more ready sale at a relatively better price. The reason for that was given the flooding of eastern markets with beef from South America. Beef comes in free from tariff, we are told.

Mrs. G. W. Beadle and daughter, Miss Julia, arrived from Forest City, Iowa, Wednesday for a visit of a month or longer with her sister, Mrs. J. H. Beadle, and family. In spite of her 80 years Mrs. G. W. Beadle stood the trip well and was little fatigued when they landed here.

I have just received a very nobby line of samples of goods for stylish suits for men; nothing equalling them ever shown here. A. E. Horn. 2-3-4t.

T. M. Rector and Volner Hamby have bought the City Restaurant from Dock Hinch and took possession some weeks ago. The family of Mr. Rector arrived from Louisville Monday. Mr. Hinch is undecided what he will do.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

C. V. Bellamy, Pastor.
Sunday school, 10:00 a. m. J. E. Burnett, Superintendent.
Preaching, 11:00 a. m. and 7:00 p. m. Mid-week prayer meeting Wednesday at 7:00 p. m.
Epworth League Sunday 6:00 p. m., Miss Nora Jones, leader.
February the 14th at 7:00 p. m. will be held Epworth League Rally service. To all these services we extend to the public a most cordial invitation and especially to the sojourner who may be in Crossville.

DON'T WORRY, but work.

EVERY DAY IS SALE DAY at Reed & Burnett's. 1-20-1t.

G. F. Thomas was here from Chattanooga last week hunting for a few days. On his return he was accompanied by E. S. Burnett, who visited his brother, Arthur Burnett, a day or two returning home Saturday.

E. S. Burnett, who has been confined to his room for some weeks is just getting able to go about some. He is undecided as yet whether or not he will return to Cleveland, Ohio, to take up his studies as a medical student or remain at home this year and recruit his health preparatory to entering with the opening of the year's work next year. He has lost so much time this year from sickness that he may decide to not enter school again this year.

Reed & Burnett say that business so far this year is much better than the same period last year. The people are realizing more and more that they sell cheaper and have in stock nearly everything that is demanded by the community. 1-20-1t.

Because of failing health Mrs. J. R. Adams has been confined to her room for some weeks. About ten days ago her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Tollett, arrived from Inez, New Mexico. They will remain about a week longer and then return via Chattanooga and visit a son there for a short time before proceeding to their home. Mr. and Mrs. Tollett moved to New Mexico about nine years ago and this is their first visit since going there.

Reed & Burnett's butcher shop is a success. They have brought the price of meats down. This is a saving to the people. 1-20-1t.

Rev. C. V. Bellamy is arranging to organize a company of Boy Scouts among the youths of our town. While few people here know much about the movement in a specific way many do know enough about it to be heartily in sympathy with the movement and will lend all the aid possible. The first requirement is that the boy must be twelve years of age. Those who are interested can secure full information by applying to Rev. Bellamy. Rev. Bellamy visited the school Monday and took the initial steps necessary to the organization by explaining it to the boys. The Boy Scout movement has had the approval of the best Christian men and women the world over and under the direction of Rev. Bellamy it should and doubtless will develop in our boys those high principles that make for the best citizenship. He will be sure of the moral support and assistance of the best people of our town and we predict that much good will result.

"To do a little better by you than others" is a motto that is being made good by Reed & Burnett. 1-20-1t.

Mrs. Melissa Elmore stopped off for a visit with her sister at Cookeville on her return from Nashville last week.

Following are those who attended the O. E. S. and Masonic gatherings at Nashville last week from this county, so far as we have learned: Chas. Comstock, Past Grand Master; Mrs. Dollie Comstock, Mrs. Belle Knowles, Mrs. Lelah DeGolia, Mrs. Nellie Dorton, Mrs. Annie Cate, Mrs. Melissa Elmore, Miss Eula Bishop, S. C. Bishop, J. F. Brown. Mrs. Comstock enjoyed the distinction of being elected Associate Grand Conductress, which puts her in the regular line of succession to become Grand Matron of the state O. E. S. She is splendidly qualified for the place and will make an able officer.

Rooms to rent over the Chronicle office.

E. V. Hinch is reported to be sick with pneumonia at his home near Pomona. Mr. Hinch has the sympathy of his many friends in his sickness as he has been visited with the deep sorrow of losing two sons within a year, and this sickness coming as it does is particularly trying.

REED & BURNETT,
Crossville and Crab Orchard.

Chas. Braddock was in from Creston Monday.

For Sale—Six pure blood Plymouth Rock pullets and two cockerels, at one dollar each. Call at Chronicle office.

Walter Hill, store manager for Reed & Burnett, at Crab Orchard, was here from Sunday to Monday.

Circuit court is in session this week with Judge Snodgrass on the bench and General Mitchell prosecuting with his usual vigor.

In a recent letter written to the Chronicle by Dr. W. B. Young, Clifty, in speaking of the Chronicle he says: "It is a good weekly, in fact, I think, one of the best in the state." Mr. Young is general manager of the Consolidated Coal Company, at Clifty, and he is widely known throughout the state as a man of very high character.

Senator T. E. Wilson has introduced a bill and had it passed by the present legislature changing the time of holding the Chancery court in this county. The present time is the first Tuesday after the second Monday in February and August. The new act changes the time to the first Tuesday after the fourth Monday in February, but no change is made in the August time. This will prove a real convenience to attorneys as it some times happens that circuit court holds into the second week and thus brings both courts in the same week and on the same day.

John Q. Burnett and son Baxter Burnett are arranging to start a stove mill at the old Deters mill site. They will move the Burnett stove mill from near the top of the mountain on the Sequatchie valley road to town so soon as the weather will permit.

H. R. Webb has bought the Mary Peck property on Webb Avenue and will repair it and put it in good shape for a residence and it will be for rent.

Chester Rose and Brown Huttsell, of Crab Orchard, were county seat visitors Sunday.

Dr. F. J. Upham left yesterday for St. Paul, Minn., to look after his interest in the home estate. He expects to return in a week or ten days.

That ground hog had to be strictly onto his job to get a sight of the sun yesterday. It did slip through a slit in the clouds a time or two but its stay was brief.

Cashier J. S. Reed recently went to Chattanooga to prosecute the man Powell, who raised the check of A. H. Hall & Company, Biglick, but found that the man was able to prove that he is insane in spite of the fact that many persons think him of perfectly sound mind and shrewd as well. Upon learning the advantage the man has Mr. Reed returned and abandoned the prosecution as he felt that conviction would be impossible under the circumstances.

WAR SITUATION.

There is little in the European war that indicates any special advantage for either side. The fighting continues very desperately and deadly at many points at short intervals with slight advances for first one side and then the other, but to say there is anything in sight that means a decisive victory for any considerable body of troops or over any large scope of country, is putting the case too strongly.

Every indication points to a long continued struggle with many lives sacrificed and untold millions of property destroyed. The war as a whole is estimated to be costing forty millions of dollars a day. Just how long such losses can be stood by the nations involved remains to be seen as no one pretends to predict the date at which the war will cease or who will be the final victors.
